CAN THE WORLD KNOW?

We pray that as you leaf through your FINIAL you may again see the great need of missions.

May God's concern be yours. May your daily living with God, whether in the classroom or on your Christian Service assignment, point you toward the fulfilling of this need.

What will you do?

Are you willing to be sent?

Dedication

Mr. George W. Supplee
"Pop"

"According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death." Philipians 1:20

Our 1962 FINIAL is dedicated to one, beloved by all of us, who has known the need of missions and has labored long at the battle front. It is to you, George W. Suplee, that we give this honor.

In 1921, on your honeymoon, you and your wife sailed for India as missionaries under the American Baptist Foreign Missionary Association. You founded Christian schools, compiled a hymn book, took evangelistic tours into surrounding areas, and translated the New Testament into the Angami-Naga language.

When the Indian government underwent political changes in 1949, you were falsely accused of inciting rebellion amongst the Nagas. Six weeks to leave the country were granted to you. You left even sooner when a plot to kidnap you was exposed.

In 1951, you came to CBC. With the exception of the year spent in the capacity of assistant principal at Ben Lippen School, you have taught here. Whether you are teaching us in classes, talking with us at the mail boxes, or leading us in a chorus medley in Chapel, we know that you have a concern for each one of us which goes far beyond the area of our school life. To each one here at CBC, you are our "Pop".

"Say, 'Pop', who gets your rosebud today?"

Your president's thoughts

Looking through this year's FINIAL, as you will often do in days ahead, you will feel the heart-beat of C. B. C. reflected and preserved in its pages. Actually, it is the heart-beat of the Bible, the risen life of the indwelling Lord surging out to the ends of the earth, which you have realized during your days as students at C. B. C. It is missions; the inevitable outreach of the indwelt life.

We need to be reminded, again and again, of the things that are of greatest importance. We will need to be reminded that missions are not to have a place in our lives, but our whole lives are to have a place in missions. We will need to be reminded that, in the words of A. J. Gordon, "We do not stand in the world bearing witness to Christ, but we stand in Christ bearing witness to the world."

Whenever you read the FINIAL may you ever be found abiding in God's missionary purpose.

Alma Mater

Columbia, Alma Mater,
 Thy name we would adorn,
 With filial devotion,
 Of veneration born.
 In land of golden jasmine,
 And fair magnolia white,
 Thy towers are pointing upward
 Toward God and Heaven and Light.

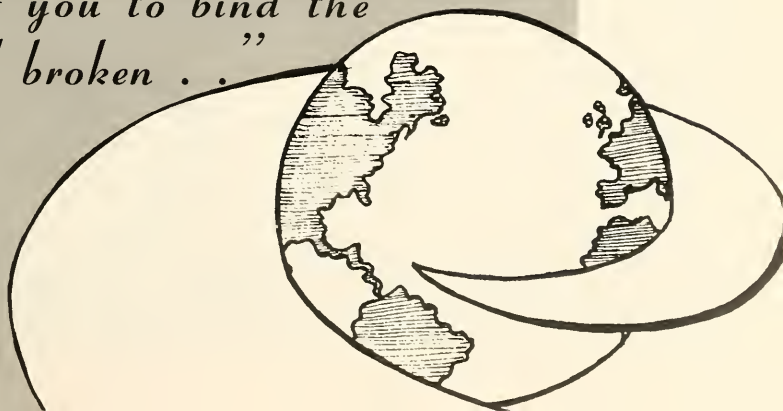

Of rare and costly marble
 Thy walls were never reared;
 But sons and daughters noble,
 To whom His grace appeared,
 Have ever been thy bulwarks,
 Thy rare adornment too,
 Columbia Bible College,
 Our Alma Mater true!

The vision thou hast given
 Of truth and human need,
 Inspires us all to service,
 To sow the precious seed.
 May we in consecration
 To Jesus Christ alone,
 Fulfill thy sacred purpose:
 "TO KNOW AND MAKE HIM KNOWN."

Welcome to our CBC family!

Poem

"Observation of a Sparrow"

All day long I've winged my flight
O'er the grounds of CBC,
And found convenient resting spots
And interesting things to see.

On that sandy stretch of land
Stand the buildings that God gave,
And gently round its boundaries
The pine trees watch and wave.

There's a calm, sweet restfulness
Settled o'er this hallowed place.
I seem to see the light of Christ
Aglow in every face.

Oh, no, they do not sit all day
And quietly meditate.
They rush about from class to class
At a very rapid rate.

I see them on the sport's field
And in chapel hear them sing,
And oft they leave the campus
On service for their King.

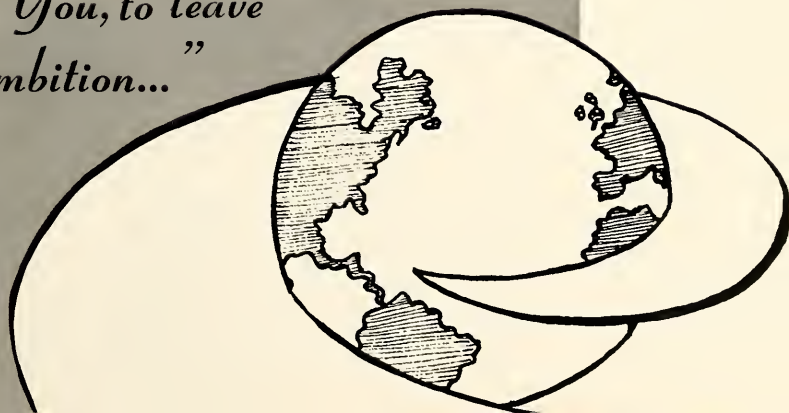

I see then that their secret's
Not curriculum nor creed.
The secret of their restfulness
Is--Christ is there, indeed!

Have you sometimes wondered who planned and directed the activities you attended, or who represented you to the faculty? As a member of the Student Association you elect the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. All other committee chairmen are appointed by the president.

The Student Association tries to co-ordinate school life by promoting varied activities which aid the spiritual life and fellowship of the students. The Student Council, the executive body of the Student Association, plans and directs these activities.

All other student organizations and publications are supervised by the Council, yet operate under their own constitutions and officers.

The FMF group at Columbia Bible College, a member of the national organization of the Student Foreign Mission Fellowship, meets every Saturday evening. Visiting missionaries often bring the message before the students separate into prayer groups representing various fields of the world.

Every year a specific missionary project is chosen. This year the project has two parts. $5,500 has been designated to the Voice of the Andes. HCJB-TV in Quito, Ecuador, has been licensed to operate the first TV studio in that city and will use the money to erect a TV antenna. Another $5,500 has been allocated to the Central American Mission for their literature expansion.

- the FMF literature rack
- the prayer groups
- the project banks are all a vital part of the FMF program at CBC.

The life and activities of the current school year are portrayed in the FINIAL. A glimpse of the various phases of school life, as shown in this book, will probably bring back many memories in the years to come.

Ce Be Cean

The staff meets for prayer and business.

Each monthly edition strives "to entertain and stimulate, to be approved and criticized, to challenge and to activate" the students at CBC. Its attractive format and subject content have combined to make this year's "CeBeCean" truly enjoyable.

1 Kings 8:60

"SO SEND I YOU"

So send I you, to labor unrewarded
To serve unpaid, unloved, unsought, unknown,
To bear rebuke, to suffer scorn and scoffing,
So send I you, to toil for me alone.

So send I you, to bind the bruised and broken,
O'er wandering souls to work, to weep, to wake,
To bear the burdens of a world aweary,
So send I you, to suffer for my sake.

So send I you, to loneliness and longing,
With heart ahungering for the loved and known,
Forsaking home and kindred, friend and dear one,
So send I you, to know My love alone.

So send I you, to leave your life's ambition,
To die to dear desire, self-will resign,
To labor long and love where men revile you,
So send I you, to lose your life in Mine.

So send I you, to hearts made hard by hatred,
To eyes made blind because they will not see,
To spend, though it be blood, to spend and spare not,
So send I you, to taste of Calvary.

"As the Father hath sent me, so send I you."
